

ASRC COMMITTEE STRUCTURE AS APPROVED 5/13/79

Board members: Brown, Stubbs--BRMRG
Vines, Cline-PVSARG

TRAINING COMMITTEE: Chairman: Larry Cline

0. Advises the Board on matters of training.
1. Coordinate training activities
2. Develop training aids and materials
3. Enforce standards
4. Provide training for related organizations, upon request
5. Maintain the training records of the ASRC.

OPERATIONS COMMITTEE: Chairman: Yorke Brown

The operations committee is sub-divided into the communications sub-committee and the equipment sub-committee. A ~~further~~ further function is that of the Operations Officer, a member of the committee.

Communications Sub-committee: Chairman: Garth Kirkpatrick

1. Ensures the ASRC has an adequate, functional communication system.
- ~~Ad~~ 2. Advises the Board on matters of communications policy, through the Chmn.
3. maintains the ASRC radios, within the restrictions set by the FCC
4. Advises the member Groups in matters of communications equipment purchase.
5. Advises the Board in the administration of the ASRC's licenses(FCC)

equipment sub-committee

1. Maintains ASRC equipment and an inventory of same.
2. investigates sources of equipment
3. advises the Board in matters of equipment policy.
4. Assists the Groups in the selection of equipment.

Operations~~s~~ Officer:

- ~~L1~~ 1. Ensures the procedural standards are adhered to.
2. Monitors the operational readiness of the Groups.
3. Maintains the records of the ASRC's operations.
- ~~Main~~
4. Maintains the operational readiness of the ASRC.

INFORMATION COMMITTEE: Chairman: Christopher Stubbs

1. Develop and maintain ties with organizations of interest to the ASRC
2. Publicise Conf. activities
3. Provide speakers and programs upon request.
4. Develop "canned" programs for (3)
5. Publish the ASRC newsletter.
6. Publish standards and procedural manuals
7. monitor dissemination of information about the ASRC.