Orienteering Course and Map over Bear Run Nature Reserve

Version 1.5, 4/15/94

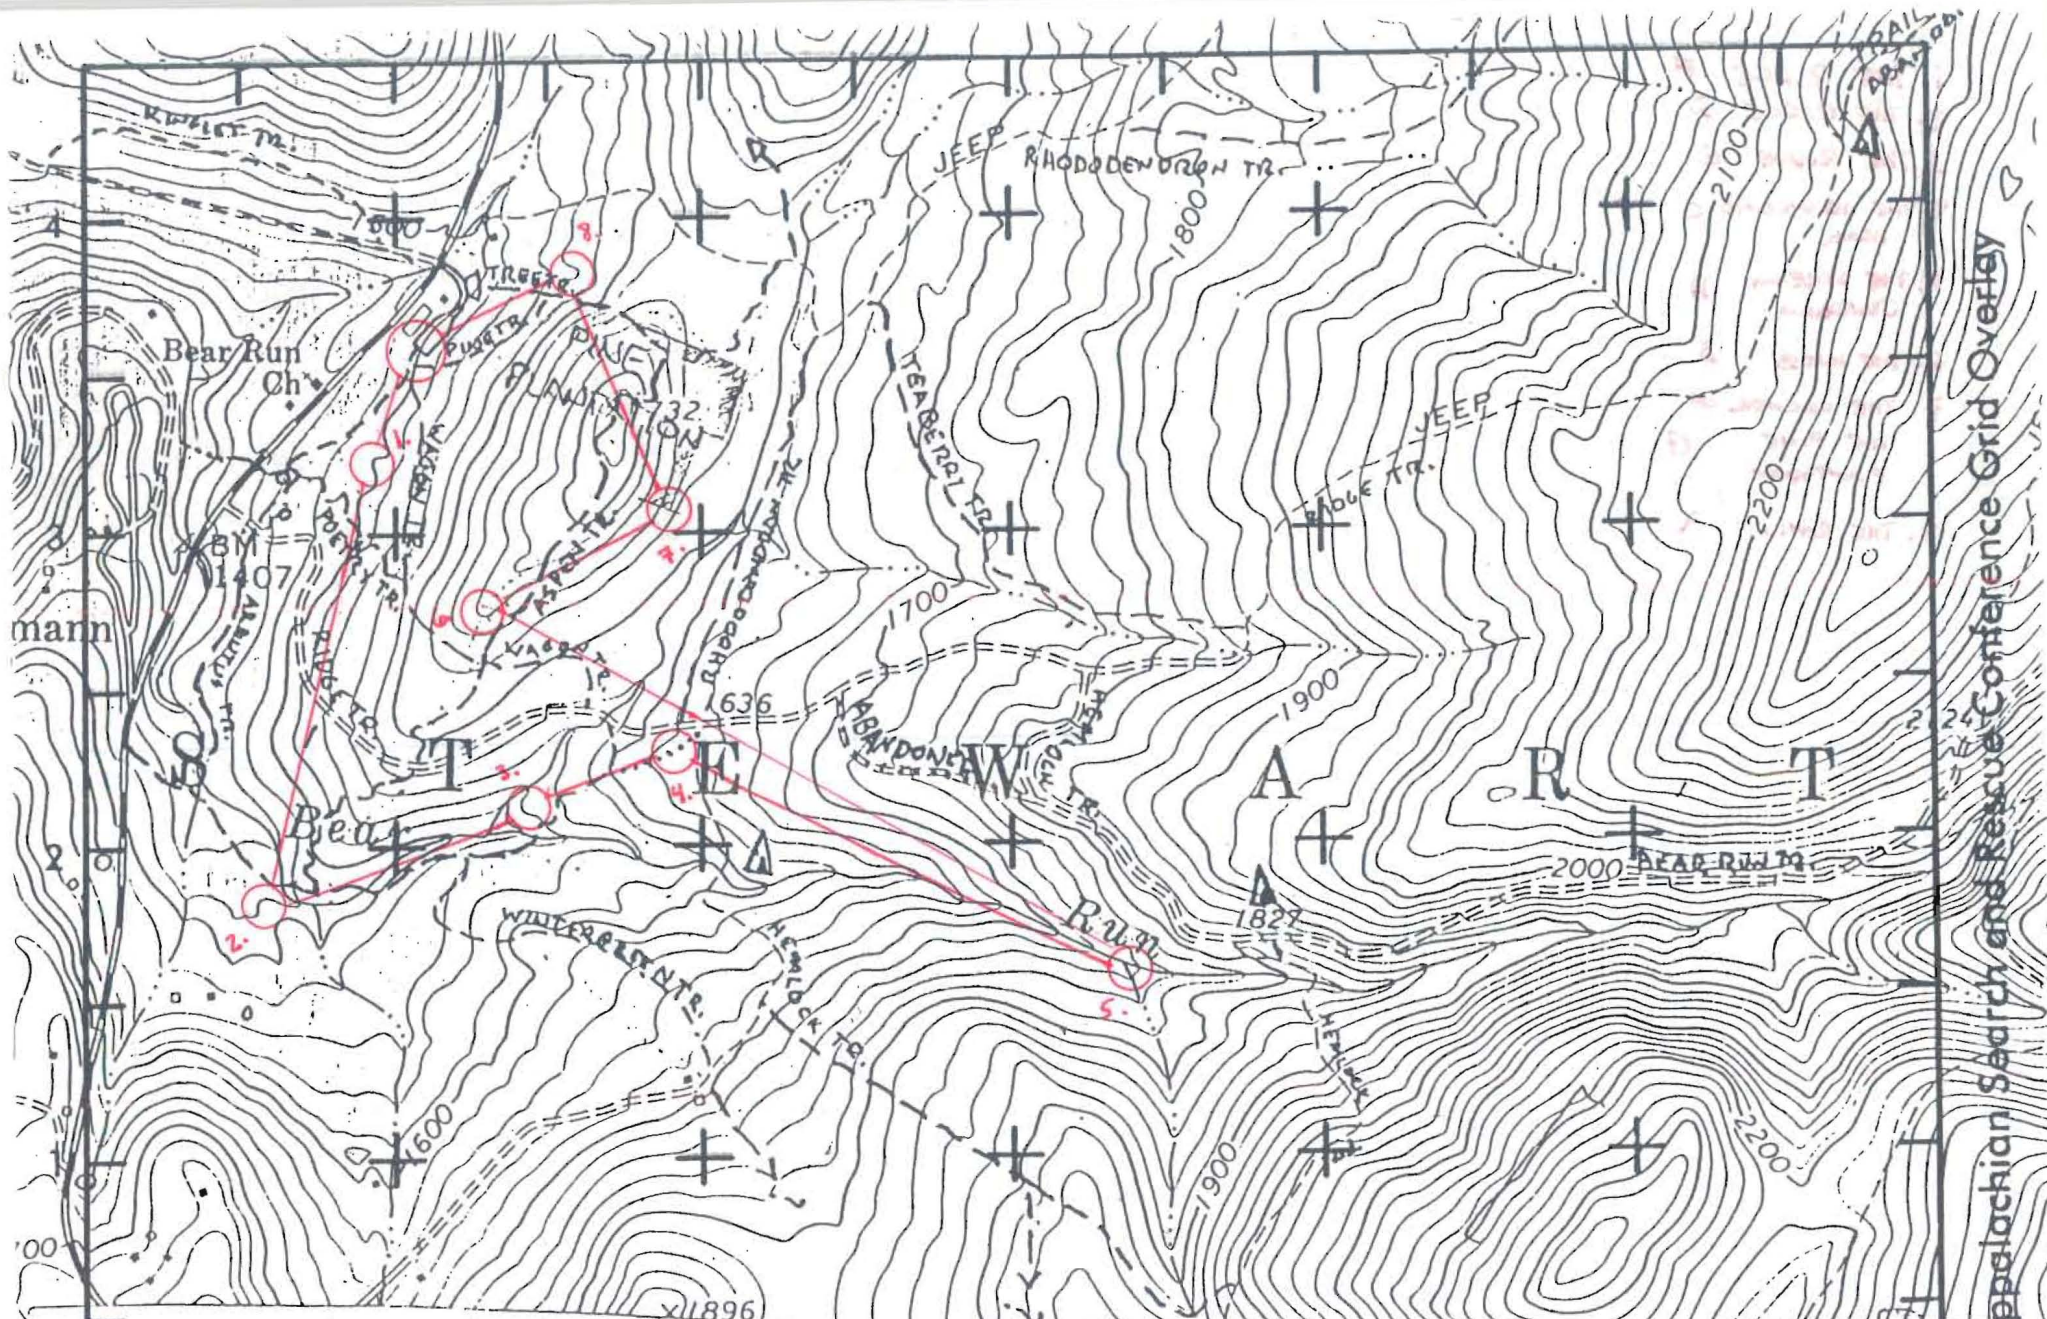

Instructions:

Go to the parking lot for the Western Pennsylvania Conservancy's Bear Run Nature Reserve. The Nature Reserve is across the road from the famous Frank Lloyd Wright landmark house, Fallingwater. It is about 2 miles north of Ohiopyle on PA Route 381.

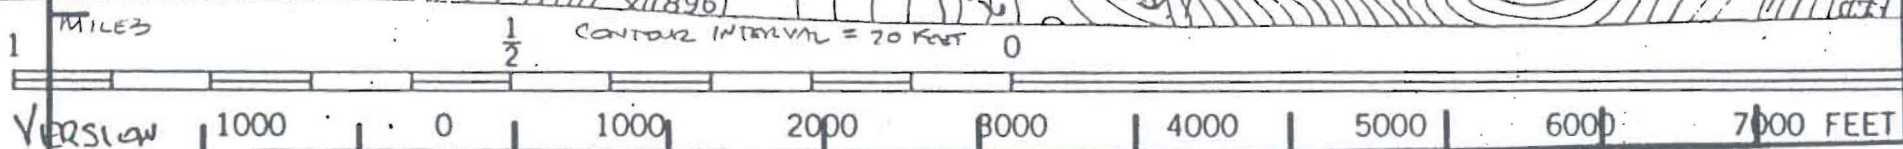

Navigate, in order, to the eight points on the enlarged, gridded map. Find the 8.5"x11" marker with an orange half-square at each station. Each marker is attached to a tree near waist level. At each point, write down the letter marked on the marker in the blank below. Each marker has a latter from A to H. You have completed the course when you have found all markers. For an additional challenge, try doing the course backwards.
